Vol. XVIII } THURSDAY FEBRUARY 26, 1818 {No. 5160.

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

FAMILY COMFORTS.

The pleasure of social enjoyments and "family comforts" at this season, are prettily delineated in the following lines:

When the wind bleakly blows,
When it rains or it snows,
And all nature seems freezing and shiv'ring with cold;
When the herds seek the shed,
When the birds droop the head,
And the flocks chill and cheerless crowd into the fold;
Then—in love what a charm!
Then—true friendship how warm!
In domestic endearments what extacy bright!
Tho' the wind bleakly blows,
Tho' it rains, or it snows;
This, this is the season of social delight.

ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Wednesday, February 25, 1818.

SPAIN

Matters between Spain and this country thicken rapidly. Mr. Forsyth, who is understood to be generally in the confidence of the executive, yesterday moved for an address to the president, requesting him to lay before the house so much of the correspondence with that government as will enable congress to judge what ground there is for expecting an adjustment of the differences between that government and this country. He remarked that the house would find from those documents that every effort of our minister at Madrid to bring about a settlement had been evaded. He reminded the house that the president had informed them that a negociation was going on in Washington, and said that the result of that negociation, or the state it was in, ought to be imparted to the house. For himself, he could say that he was tired of negociating with Spain; and he wished to know whether there was any prospect of its being brought to a reasonable issue.

UNIFORM BANKRUPT LAW.

A motion was made by Mr. Spencer to amend the first section in a manner to extend the benefit of the law, if it should pass, to agriculturists and manufacturers.

Mr. Beecher opposed the motion, and it was negatived.

Mr. Spencer then moved to include the manufacturer along with the merchant in the provisions of the bill.

This motion was also negatived.

Mr. Clay, upon the grounds that he was afraid all labor would be thrown away upon the bill, though he had voted against striking out the first section, moved to reconsider the vote by which the motion to strike out the first section had on Friday been negatived.

This motion was carried by 69 to 58.

Mr. Clay then moved to strike out the first section of the bill, which was negatived by 71 to 68.

Mr. Williams, of N. C. moved that the committee should rise, and be refused leave to sit again.

Mr. Mercer opposed this, and deprecated, and in pretty severe terms condemned, the expedients which had been resorted to to destroy the bill by arresting it in its first section. In all parliamentary proceedings it had ever been allowed to the promoters of a measure to make it as perfect as they could before any decision was taken upon it. He owned that the arguments of Mr. Hopkinson had changed his opinion on the subject, and he hoped the bill would be proceeded in.

Mr. Clay declared his object was to save the time of the house. He owned that all the indications of the sense of the house were in favor of the bill. He, however, stated some points on which a difference of opinion must exist.

Mr. Hopkinson proposed that those parts to which Mr. Clay alluded should be brought up first, and the sense of the house taken upon them, in order to determine whether it would be worth while to proceed with the other details.

Mr. Williams withdrew his motion—and Mr. Tucker moved that the 36th section should be taken up.

Mr. Barbour observing it was a late hour, moved that the committee should rise, which was agreed to.

A motion was then made by Mr. Edwards for an indefinite postponement—but the house adjourned.

Quere.—Is economizing time a valid ground for the legislature of a nation strangling a bill of the utmost importance in the very act of birth?—Were I a legislator, I would as soon move the house to leave a measure of importance in the middle of it and fall to at a game of blind-man's buff.

Washington, Feb. 24.

A private letter from New Orleans, of the 26th ultimo, to a gentleman in this city, furnishes the following information from Fort Scott: "Lieut. Sharp, of the army, has this moment arrived here from Fort Scott, which post he left on the 10th inst. He states, that out any of the provisions (forwarded from N. Orleans by the contractor) had reached there; one of the vessels had returned to Mobile, the other supposed to be lost at sea, as nothing has been heard of her since she left here. It appears from the statement of lieut. S. that there is no possible hope of getting provisions on to that place, as the river is lined with Indians, and every mode of conveyance cut off by them. The troops at Fort Scott will have to fall down to the mouth of the Apalachicola, at which place they can be supplied, otherwise they must go in to Fort Hawkins."

A previous letter from the same gentleman, mentions, that a considerable quantity of provisions, forwarded from New Orleans for the army, by way of Pensacola, had been stopped and turned back by the Spanish authorities at that place, who refused permission to transport the supplies up the Escambia.

The London Courier of the 26th December, says, "Government will no longer give encouragement to persons who wish to proceed as settlers to H. The Franklin 74, has excited much interest, and the admiration of every class. She was on the eve of sailing for the Mediterranean, to relieve the Washington, Com. Chauncey.

The editor of the Liverpool Mercury, of the second ultimo observes, "Dr. Franklin himself, with all his sanguine predictions of America becoming a great and independent power, could scarcely have anticipated that an American ship of the line, bearing his own name, would convey the American minister to England in the year 1817.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

To the House of Representatives of the United States.

Conformably with a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 6th of this month, I now lay before that house a report received from the secretary of state, with the copy of the correspondence referred to, and requested by that resolution. JAMES MONROE.

Washington, Feb. 12, 1818.

The secretary of state, to whom was referred the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 6th of this month, requesting the president to cause to be laid before that house the correspondence with the government of Spain, to which a letter of the minister of the United States at the court of Madrid of the 25th of October, 1816, communicated with a late message of the president to that house, relates, has the honor herewith to submit to the president a copy of the correspondence requested.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

Department of State,
February 12, 1818.

(TRANSLATION.)

The Chevalier Don Luis de Onis to the Secretary of State.

Philadelphia, Sept. 5, 1815.

SIR,—Under the date of 30th June I am advised by lieutenant general Don Pablo Morillo, captain general of Caracas, and commander of the expedition which his majesty has destined to re-establish tranquillity at Carthagena, that, with a view to accelerate this important object, he is about to establish the most rigorous blockade of the ports of the vice royalty of Santa Fe, including Carthagena, and that, in consequence, every neutral vessel which shall be found not only in those ports, but on those coasts, shall be made prize of, in order to prevent those who have revolted from his majesty's authority receiving succors of any kind.

I have thought it proper to communicate this to you for the information of the president, that the injuries may be avoided which would result to the citizens of this republic if they continue, as heretofore to trade with the rebels against the authority of my sovereign.

I renew to you, sir, the assurances of my respect, and pray God to preserve you many years. LUIS DE ONIS.

(TRANSLATION.)

Don Luis de Onis to the Secretary of State.

Philadelphia, March 2, 1816.

SIR.—Don Pablo Morillo, commander in chief of the forces destined by the king, my master, for the pacification of the vice royalty of Santa Fe, says to me, under date of the 19th of December last, that after having compelled Carthagena to surrender at discretion, he had found it expedient, for the complete re-establishment of the tranquillity of the vice-royalty to continue the blockade from Santa Marta to the river Atrato, inclusive, and to give orders that if any vessel be met with further south than the mouths of the Magdalena, or further north than the parallel of Cape Tiburoon on the Mosquito Shore, and between the meridians of these points, she would be declared a good prize, whatever documents or destination she might have.—But that he had left open to the commerce of neutrals the two ports of Santa Marta and Puerto Bello.

I have the honor to give you this notice, as it may be interesting to the merchants of the United States, and to renew the assurances, &c.

LUIS DE ONIS.

Mr. Monroe, Secretary of State, to the Chevalier de Onis, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, &c.

Dep't of State, March 20, 1816.

SIR,—I have had the honor to receive your letter of March 2d, announcing the continuance of a blockade of the Spanish coast in South America, from Santa Marta to the river Atrato, inclusive of the latter, by the commander in chief of his Catholic majesty's forces, and that if any vessel is met south of the mouths of the Magdalena, or north of the parallel of Cape Tiburoon, on the Mosquito coast and between the meridian of those points, she shall be seized and condemned as a prize, whatever may be her documents or destination. You state, also, that the ports of Santa Marta and Porto Bello are left open to neutrals.

I have to state that this proclamation of general Morillo is evidently repugnant to the law of nations, for several reasons, particularly the following: That it declares a coast of several hundred miles to be in a state of blockade, and because it authorises the seizure of neutral vessels at an unjustifiable distance from the coast. No maxim of the law of nations is better established than that a blockade shall be confined to particular ports, and that an adequate force shall be stationed at each to support it. The force should be stationary, and not a cruising squadron, and placed so near the entrance of the harbor or mouth of the river as to make it evidently dangerous for vessels to enter. I have to add, that a vessel entering the port ought not to be seized, except in returning to it, after being warned off by the blockading squadron stationed near it.

I am instructed by the president to state to you these objections to the blockade, which has been announced in your letter, that you may communicate them to your government, and in confidence that you will, in the mean time, interpose your good offices, and prevail on general Morillo to alter his proclamation, and practise under it in such a manner as to conform in both respects to the law of nations.

In stating to you these well founded objections to the blockade of general Morillo, I have the honor to observe, that your motive for communicating it is duly appreciated.

I have the honor to be, &c.

JAMES MONROE.

(TRANSLATION.)

Don Luis de Onis, to the Secretary of State.

Philadelphia, March 25, 1816.

SIR.—I have received your official letter of the 20th of this month, in which you state that the proclamation of General Morillo is repugnant to the laws of nations, as well because it declares a coast of several hundred miles in a state of blockade, authorising the capture of every neutral vessel at an unlimited distance from the coast, as that it is an established maxim among nations that a blockade should be limited to the ports where there may be a stationary and not a cruzing force sufficient to make the entrance of the harbor or river where it may be placed, dangerous, and finally, even in this case, a vessel ought not to be captured when she is about to enter a port, save only when after having received notice of the blockade, she attempts to infringe it. You are pleased to state to me, that the President desires that I will communicate these observations to my government, and that I would use my good offices, confidentially with General Morillo, so to modify his blockade, as to make it conform to the laws of nations.

I will communicate to his majesty, in compliance with the wishes of the president, what you have stated to me in your note, and I will with pleasure avail myself of the departure of Mr. Hughes, to write to General Morillo, inviting him, in the execution of his blockade, to avoid the injurious effects resulting therefrom, to the citizens of this republic, so far as may be compatible with the security and tranquility of his majesty's dominions under his command.

I must, however, observe to you, sir, that General Morillo has a naval force disposable and competent, as I conceive, to the object in view. That on the 3d of February there sailed from Cadiz, a squadron of a ship of the line, two frigates, and several smaller vessels as a reinforcement—that on the coast intended to be blockaded by the said general, there are no other ports of entry for merchant vessels than those of Carthagena, Santa Marta, and Porto Bello—and finally, that the measure taken by him not being directed against an enemy's country, is not as stated in your esteemed note, contrary to the laws of public rights. The object of the General's proclamation is to notify the traders of foreign nations, that he will maintain the laws for the regulation of the Indias, in their full force; the observance of which had been relaxed in the latter times, by the effect of circumstances, though modified, however, in favor of neutrals, by leaving two ports open to their commerce. You are aware that agreeably to those laws, no foreign vessel was allowed to trade with the dominions of his majesty on that continent, without a special license, and that vessels found near, or evidently shaping a course towards them, were liable to confiscation as interlopers. Not only that part of the coast lying between Santa Marta and the river Atrato, but the whole course eastward and southward of those points, from the Orinoco to the territory of this republic, belongs to the Spanish monarchy, and consequently any vessel whatever, found near it, or standing towards it, can have no other object than to carry on smuggling, or stir up a civil war in the king's dominions; in either case, the laws of nations recommend the seizure of the vessels so employed.—Actuated by a constant desire to prevent the misfortunes which such injuries might occasion to the citizens of this republic, I have, on other occasions, suggested a very simple mode of putting an end to them, namely, that the President should be pleased to issue orders that no vessels should be cleared at the custom houses, save for a specified port, according to the general practice of nations.—The practice of clearing many vessels for the West Indies, generally carries with it a suspicion of a design to carry on a contraband trade, or to disturb the public tranquility of the king, my master, and therefore the owner who clears out his vessel in this way, and without the certificates of the Spanish consuls, cannot complain if it be detained as suspicious. In fact, what difficulty can a merchant, acting fairly, have to specify the ports of Havanna, Kingston, Santa Marta, Guyra, Porto Bello, Rio Janeiro, or any other of independent nations?—None, unquestionably—since in case of not finding a good market in one place, he proceeds to another, with a declaration made at the port he touched at, of the motives which obliged him to alter his destination. The wisdom and humanity which so eminently distinguish the president and the administration, cannot fail to perceive the solidity of these observations, nor to approve the policy of his majesty in taking the suitable and effectual measures to secure his subjects from the civil war which a number of adventurers are endeavouring to kindle in his dominions—and I therefore flatter myself that he will be pleased to take into consideration the expediency of adopting the measure I have had the honor to suggest to you, by preventing the collectors of the customs from clearing out vessels except from specified ports, and notifying merchants trading with the possessions of the king to conform to the established rules and orders, regulating, not only neutrals, but Spanish vessels also, that they may avoid the consequence of their non-observance, notwithstanding his majesty's desire to afford them within his dominions, all the benefits and advantages compatible with the public safety and his royal interests.

I hope that the explanation which I have thus taken the liberty to make, until I have received the answer of the king, my master, will quiet the anxiety of the President as to the proclamation of General Morillo, and that it will be viewed by him as a continuation of my earnest desire to reinstate the commerce of the two nations reciprocally, on the most liberal and favorable footing.

I renew my respects to you, sir, and pray God to preserve you for many years.

At the earnest request of several persons in the country, who have not had an opportunity of seeing the spectacle of Timour the Tartar, the managers are induced to represent it, in conjunction with the grand operatic drama of Tekeli—a novelty not hitherto introduced in this country, of two horse pieces being acted on the same evening.

On FRIDAY EVENING, Feb. 27,
The splendid melo drama (by Hook) of

THE SIEGE OF MONTGATZ.

A description of the scenery, machinery, &c. prepared expressly for Tekeli.

During the last part of the overture and rising of the curtain, A STORM.—Tekeli is discovered lying on the branch of a large tree, and Wolf (his friend) asleep at the foot of it. Dialogue—Music. A skirmishing party of the Imperialists, which is about the wood for the purpose of cutting off the retreat of Tekeli, enter. Tekeli and Wolf fall on the ground and escape a charge of the enemy. They subsequently hide behind a thicket. The Infantry charge and THE CAVALRY follow—the horses displaying agility by each leaping the bushes. Tekeli and Wolf having escaped, rush forward, kneel and embrace. Music expressive the whole time. Dialogue. Villagers enter—who being made acquainted with the wants of Tekeli, compose a litter ornamented with boughs. Chorus—'Hail the nuptial hour,' and exit.

On the left a Bridge crossing the river Torza; under which is the Water Mill seen at work.—On the right Christini's Apartment. In the back, at the supposed distance of 8 miles, is the FORTRESS OF MONTGATZ, on a rock. In the front two or three barrels. Enter Christini—song, "How sweet are the flowers that grow by yon fountain." Dialogue. Tekeli is borne in on the litter—he makes himself known to the miller, who, although an enemy, shelters him from the pursuit of the soldiery, which are stationed in every apartment to prevent his escape. They are defeated, and Tekeli is preserved in an extraordinary manner. March. The detachment in the mill, with Maurice commanding, march on and range themselves. Count Caraffa enters with his party. The mill detachment presents arms—the count examines the miller, whose answers not being satisfactory, he is dragged before the court.

Act III. A GOTHIC HALL in the Fortress of Montgatz. A table covered with a carpet, on which lies a mantle and helmet. The curtain rises to solemn music. Alexina addresses her soldiers; and in answer to an imperious demand of Count Caraffa, made through his herald Edmund, she strikes her shield, the doors of the Hall fly open, and discover the battlements of the Fortress filled with horse and foot. Alexina then mounts her elegant Arabian charger and adresses them.

Last Scene. The whole extent of the Battlements, the Towers and Walls of Montgatz. In an elevated situation on the tower hangs the standard of the Hungarians. On the distant hills Caraffa's Camp—the Austrian colors flying. A Gate and Port Cullis. March. Enter troops in all directions—GENERAL ENGAGEMENT between the Austrians and Hungarians. During the fight an Hungarian officer, with intrepid courage, mounts the battlements and his horse, with wonderful sagacity, tears down the Austrian flag. Tekeli is seen on the Ramparts—Caraffa dares him to the fight. Tekeli enters on Horseback. SINGLE COMBAT between Tekeli and Caraffa, in the course of which Tekeli's Horse is shot under him by Caraffa. He dismounts, and they fight on foot—Caraffa is overthrown. STORMING OF THE FORTRESS. Tekeli and his party prove victorious, and he is restored to his Alexina, amidst the shouts of the victors and the waving of the Hungarian Flags from the towers of the Fortress.

AFTER WHICH, A VARIETY OF

A magnificent procession of the Tartars over the Bridge on horseback, conducting Zorilda, mounted on a courser richly caparisoned; the courser kneels and Zorilda dismounts.

Scene 3. A spirited Tournament. Timour and Zorilda enter and seat themselves on Thrones to witness the Combat of Kerim & Sanballat, who at that moment enter the Lists on horseback. Kerim's horse takes part in the combat, and drags Sanballat to the ground. Kerim dismounts and proposes to renew the combat on foot—the horses are led away and the fight begins. Kerim falls and loses his sword; his rival rushes to despatch him: at that instant, Kerim's horse interposes to save his master. Sanballat in fury stabs the horse—who falls and expires at his master's feet.

The Last Scene represents Timour's Fortress by moonlight. A Tremendous Cataract and Waterfall, over which is an arched bridge. One side of the stage represents the exterior of Timour's Fortress. A variety of smaller Towers and Terraces appear in the perspective.

During this scene, the Georgians and Mingrelians engage the Tartars on horse and foot. Timour himself on horseback appears and encourages his troops—he becomes personally engaged and is dismounted—he is pursued, and not having time to enter a Portcullis leading to the interior of his castle, he climbs the battlements and reaches in safety the Turret's top.—He brings forth Zorilda, and threatens to destroy her unless Agib who has escaped to the Georgian, is restored to him—she breaks from him and runs to the bridge, from which she leaps into the water—Agib on Horseback rushes after her. The Georgians with a Battering Ram make a breach in Timour's castle—All the horses enter. At the conclusion of the General Engagement, Agib having recovered his mother, returns with her on horseback. Timour is overthrown—but Zorilda spares his life at the intercession of Agib and Oglou.

 Tickets and places for the boxes to be taken of Mr. Howard, at the Box Office on FRIDAY, from 10 o'clock till 2, and from 3 till the conclusion of the performance.

Doors to be opened at half past 5 and the curtain to rise at half past 6 precisely.

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary prepacations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucubitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face blotted and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of b'ood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
